Dear Jil

Thank you for your letter of March 29 and your report on the review of our statistics. I am grateful for the very thorough work undertaken by your team, by the speed with which it was completed and the way they approached the review.

I am of course delighted that you have confirmed that the two reports have been collated conscientiously and consistently and that the four specific cases on which we were criticised were correctly classified and presented.

The recommendations you make for the future are all helpful and we will implement them where practicable immediately and otherwise during 2013.

Yours sincerely

Jane Furniss
