Dear Sir Michael,

I have been approached by a number of my constituents about the 2011 census. Specifically, my constituents have complained that many of the proposed questions, which they have heard about from media reports, will be too intrusive.

One of my constituents has heard that the census will ask for the name, date of birth and sex of overnight guests. I would be grateful if you could clarify this and provide me with your comments on this matter generally.

I hope you can assist and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely

David Borrow MP
